CIRCULAR

Sahitya Akademi Library in Rabindra Bhavan, New Delhi will be open for borrowing and returning the books by the members of the library. However, the reading room for general public will remain closed till further notice. The members who would like to use the library facility in Rabindra Bhavan are requested to wear face mask, sanitise their hands on entry into and exit from the library and also to cooperate with the staff in taking temperature using non-conduct thermal meters. The members also need to maintain social distancing as per the Government of India guidelines and for this purpose only 5 members will be allowed to remain in the library at a given time.
